Wilson Spirit Flying High Again

1

by Todd Thomas

Activities are a major part of the Wilson wildlife; Yell, Pepsters, Bruinettes and others make up the majority of the spirit leaders. The many things that they do contribute to the wildness of the whole student body. Could you imagine a football game without Yell, or a rally without Pepsters? Spirit is what keeps us going throughout the year.

This year's rally chairman, Geogi Levine, has stirred the rally crowds into a wild uproar, and with Georgi, Yell, Pepsters and other groups putting it all together, Wilson spirit really soared.

1. Wilson drummers wail at a rally. 2. Mr. Hansen and Susie Platt prepare the crowd for an outrageous rally. 3. An undercover Bruinette prepares for the halftime ceremonies of a football game. 4. Candy Tosa and Christin Anderson keep the crowd cheering. 5. Enthusiastic rally goers. 6. Georgi Levine brings new spirit to the rallies. 7. April Sadler shows her twirling technique. 8. 2 girls give new sophomores a little heckling. 9. Bruinettes gather to show their spirit.

Wilson's Wild Activities

by John Hughes

Although the Wild Life of Wilson consists of many different things, one of the main factors in our life continues to be the "Southern California life in the fast lane" attitude towards sports. Surfing, skiing, windsurfing, swimming, and skateboarding are the most popular summer sports, and of course, snow skiing in the winter. These are the activities that students use to let loose and shed all the thoughts and aggressions of school, and work in general.

The 1987 Campanile wants to remind all Wilsonites that the Bruin "Wild Life" runs rampant both in its academics as well as in its athletics.

1. Todd Thomas throws up a wall of water on an early morning at Shaver Lake. 2. One of Wilson's better skier-surfers, Don Sanford. 3. Jeff Hoss blasting off the top at San Miguel. 4. John Hughes, one of our more experienced Mex-runners, shows why he likes it so much! 5. Kenny "Gator" McCoy ripping it up while freestyle street skating. 6. Former Wilsonite Roger Tripp going for it in his own front yard. 7. John Fort catching air into the wild blue yonder. 8. Brad Thompson takes the logging approach to these perfect Mexican waves. 9. Kelly Pennleton shows her Olympic style. 10. When the snow is down, but the surf is up, Don Sanford takes nicely to these glassy, Lower Trestles nights.

His Spirit Runs Wild

by John Hughes

SPIRIT — That is the only word that can fully describe Keith Hansen. For the last years, Mr. Hansen has put his own spirit into Wilson. He puts everything into our school and tries to make it a better place to be.

Mr. Hansen is student council director at Wilson and the Activities Director. He helps put together everything that we do outside of class, including rallies, Homecoming, and other fun-filled events.

According to Ms. Susan DeWitz, Campanile advisor, "Mr. Hansen is the epitome of the Bruin Spirit. He doesn't hesitate to give his spare time to a variety activities, and he's always looking for a new way to make school and education fun and memorable. Know that when the day comes for Mr. Hansen to move up the administrative ladder, he'll leave a gap that will be difficult to fill both as a friend and as a colleague."

That is why we have dedicated this year's special yearbook to the wildest and most spirited Bruin of all, Mr. Keith Hansen.

1. Mr. Hansen stares out yonder. 2. Mr. Hansen contemplates Wilson's future. 3. Flowerpower on Hippy Day. 4. Hansen on lead vocals, Garcia on sax. 5. Mr. Hansen, not Wilbur, tool 6. The ultimate — Z king

DuBois Dons a New Spirit

How do you produce an effective program of instruction for more than 3300 students, a staff of 182 people, and at the same time establish strong feelings of ownership and family on our very large campus? This has been the task we have set for ourselves this year. With unbelievable support given by our Parent Teacher's Association and the Wilson Boosters, and beginning with the Staff Weekend together at Camp Hi-Hill in September, we have seen a joining of hands and efforts on the part of students, parents, and staff. All have worked toward making Wilson's sixty-first year the best ever. The results we have created you will find recorded on the pages of this year's Campanile. We have had a most successful and productive school year, and we all have had a lot of fun doing it.

Jack D. DuBois, Principal

1. Jack DuBois "Kicking Back." 2. DuBois at Pancake Breakfast. 3. DuBois at Camp Hi-Hill. 4. Jack giving a spirited talk to Wilson students. 5. DuBois with staff showing their spirit. 6. Jack looking serious.

Bruins Ace Their Season

by Melissa Aldrich

Varsity Volleyball went undefeated last year winning the Moore League title for the eighth consecutive year. Eleven talented girls made up the varsity roster. Seniors Melissa Aldrich, Alexis Beebe and Michelle P. Clark, juniors Stacy Enright, Jo Ellen Fisher, Melanie Kaiser, Angie Lightfoot, Molly McGrath and Buffy Romero, sophomores April Lidtke and Michelle Whister. The Bruins were inspired and coached by Angie Mora, who said, "Potentially, this is the best team I've ever had."

The team worked hard during the summer and it paid off at the San Bernardino Desert Classic. The girls won the tournament and Melissa Aldrich was named MVP while Molly McGrath and Melanie Kaiser made the all tournament team. During preseason the girls went undefeated and were ranked second in CIF. The team's only loss during league play came in the last game of the season against Lakewood, but that didn't stop the mighty Bruins from doing well in CIF.

Loudspeaker Shouts

by Tami Ruvalcaba

The Loudspeaker, Wilson's newspaper, lets the school know all the exciting news of the past events, upcoming events, and what is happening right now. The four-page issues usually come out once a month. Mr. Doug Iverson, advisor, states that the main goal for the year is to put out an issue every other Friday with six to eight pages in each. The only thing stopping them from their goal is the printers not being able to meet the work load.

Zygomas Goes Wild With Bruin Spirit

by Melissa Aldrich

For 30 years the number of Z girls was 20, but this year, because there were so many spirited girls, the number went up to 25. But that didn't stop Z from doing what they do best: going wild with spirit

"Z wasn't just baking; it was a lot of fun," said Z girl Nicole Hodgson, and she's right. Not only did Z bake for their Z boys, they also made signs for the quad and games, and crowned their creeps of the week at rallies. They also put inflatable killer whales in the pool for water polo, and revived the tradition of decorating the goal posts for homecoming. With Mrs. Valerie Hoffman as their sponsor, there was no way Zygomas couldn't have had a fabulous year

Varsity Yell — Wild About Spirit

Varsity Yell, sprinkled by Joyce van Zant, was a very spirited group of girls. Returning to the Varsity squad from last year was Gina Ammirato, Shannon Lynn (head), and Katrina White. Moving up from last year's JV squad was Christin Anderson, Heather Cochran, Gia Kolsky, Susie Platt, and Candy Toia. The new yell leaders included senior Lisa Wilson, and juniors Deanne Cameron and Tanya Rodriguez. Varsity Yell went all out to support Wilson High, the number one school in Long Beach!

JV YELL

by Matthew Murphy

J.V. Yell is the product of "pure energy." Their bright smiles shine into the hearts of all with reassurance that Georgie, Jenny, Mary, Karen, Kim, Shannon, and Julia will carry on the tradition and true meaning of Wilson spirit. All year long, on and off the field, J.V. Yell's radiance has shown they've got "POWER — YEAH — BRUIN POWER!"

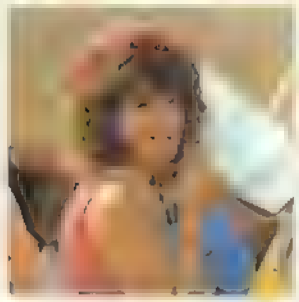
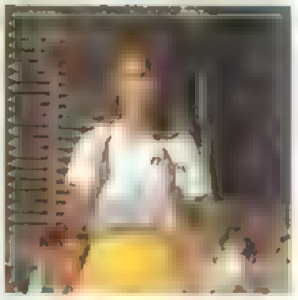
WILSON'S WILD WOMEN





SPECTACULAR SPIRIT IN ACTION

Bruinettes Are Wild

by Robyn Woronow

Bruin spirit has always been a way of life at Wilson, but it's especially important for the 74 girls out there for all the home games and special events. During pre-game and half times the girls in their pleated red skirts and their cardigan sweaters are out on the field swishing their pom-pons and doing routines they had practiced every day and twice a week after school on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Bruinettes worked hard last year, and it was worth every bit of it for them when the Los Angeles Raiders invited the girls to perform a pre-game show with 200 Marines carrying huge banners and flags onto the field.

Junior Bruinettes work hard all year for that special time when they can try out for Pepsters, Yell, or even Bruinettes again, as do many of them. About 20 of them are chosen, including the two group leaders, called heads. This year's Bruinette Heads were Jeni Tuck and Cheri LeFlore.

Woody and Wilbur, Wilson's mischievous mascots, help to bring fun and excitement to almost all of Wilson's activities. The bears, whose main goal is to boost Wilson spirit, are often more noticed than the actual event

Woody, who came to Wilson in 1961, and Wilbur in 1971, are definitely a good way to boost the student body spirit, as witnessed at such events as the football games, Homecoming, and school rallies. Woody and Wilbur are an example of the wild and wacky world at Wilson

French Club

by Michelle Clark

Brought back by popular demand, Wilson High's French Club has established itself as a permanent club on campus. The club has attained its desired goals by developing an interest in French culture and language on campus. Past activities have included a visit to the Norton Simon Museum to view French impressionistic paintings, and a French dinner in which the members sampled the world famous French cuisine.

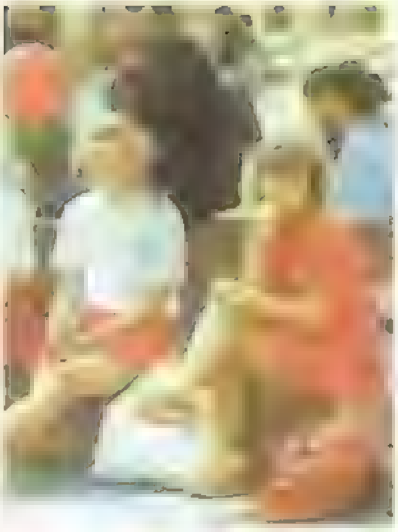
Wilson Hops a Western Wagon Train

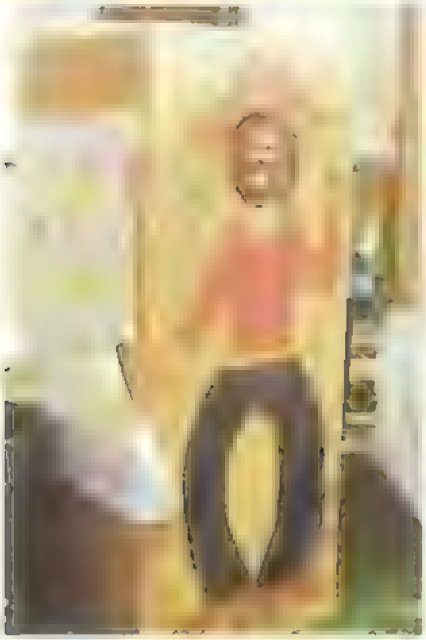
by Todd Thomas

On October 17 the Wilson Western Homecoming rolled through our school like a wild stampede of cattle: it topped off a whole week of wild and crazy spirit days, starting with color day on Tuesday going to toga day, hippie day, and finally western Homecoming day

The festivities started out at noon with the quad looking like a revived ghost town. A magnificent array of food and entertainment was scattered across the school. Booths, such as root beer floats, beef jerky, Joe Josts, sponge throwing, dunking, and a western dance hall show were just a few of the colorful booths decorating Wilson

At 1.30 the overpowering sounds of the Wilson drummers called the crowd to the bleachers, and the rally entertainment had begun. Routines by the Pepsters, Yell leaders, Brunettes and other groups kept the crowd in awe. Then came the games; first was the 3 legged race, and after that, once again the pie eating contest ended up being a pie fight when Doug Bates, John Hughes, Jeff Hoss, and Todd Thomas threw their pies instead of eating them





1. The crowd watches diligently as the tug-of-war goes on and on and on. 2. Brunettes take a rest after a long day. 3. These three Homecoming goers thought it was urban day not western day. 4. Student Government, being the main force behind every activity, was at its best doing things, such as having full use of the rally stage, dances at the Bruin Den after every home game, and a great turnout at the Semi-Winter Formal

From all the activities held Homecoming was the big one beginning with Spirit Week which had themes such as Color Day, Toga Day, Hippy Day, and then Western Day More than 25 clubs participated

Without such spirit and determination from student council, none of Wilson's activities would have been possible

Energy and enthusiasm are the qualities that guided Wilson's Fall Student Government throughout the semester. Student Council planned many spectacular events that enlightened the school year

Of the many events Student Council planned, Kampus Kapers and The Spring Fair were perhaps the grandest. Everyone helped by promoting spirit to pull off some great events.

Student Council had a major part in every event that took place at Wilson

Without the hard work and dedication from all the members, Wilson's Spring Student Council wouldn't have been the success it was A "W" pin is given to the most active seniors. They earn points by being active in NROTC, clubs, Varsity sports, and pep groups.

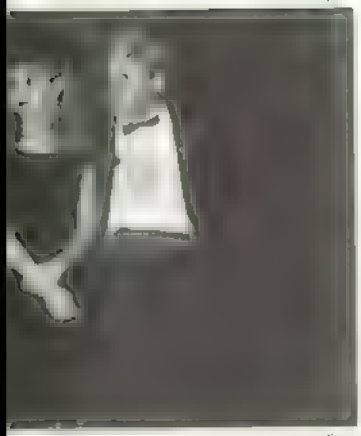
The Diamond "W" is the highest "W" given to those with 400 points. The Jeweled "W" is awarded to the seniors with 175 points, and the Gold "W" is presented if the student has 125 points.

"W's" are a way to give seniors a memorable token of their three years of time and spirit at Wilson. "Way to go, Trojans!"

A Night of Pure

Wildness



by Melissa Aldrich

Wilson students arrived at the Convention Center on Dec. 11 for a night of pure wildness. From 8 p.m. to 12 a.m. Bruins danced to the beat of the video DJ. Todd Shindledecker was crowned Mistletoe King while Randall Gershon and Andy Wenger were the princes. According to Stacy Ebright, "Everybody looked like they were having a great time; I know I did."

Fall Drama Shines

by Chris Wilson

"Go Ask Alice"

Based on the actual diary of an anonymous teen-age girl, "Go Ask Alice," the 1986 Fall Drama Production, was a true story that showed how drugs drastically affect people's lives. The casts performed to "sell out" crowds both weekends it ran. Once again Wilson Drama Department proved to be the best with a heartbreaking, thought-provoking play

Students Direct Fall One-Acts

Six outstanding 3rd year students are picked each school year to direct the Fall and Spring One-Acts. Laura Satterfield directed one-act "Just One Day," about teenage pregnancy. Tina Pedersen directed "Here We Are," a comedy about a honeymoon on a train.

"Echo" the drama about a family dealing with the guilt of suicide, was directed by Geoff Ramirez. Paula Riley directed "Infancy," a comedy about the world through babies' eyes. Amy Daley directed an alter-ego one-act named "Overtones." Michelle Thompson directed "Suppressed Desires," a comedy about psycho-analysis. The casts for the One Acts were made up of second year drama students.

Pop Downtown Rocks Around

by Sharon Suek

Were you looking for an evening of pop, jazz, or even nostalgia? Well . . . it was found on October 23, 1986, when the captivating Wilson Choral Department performed their annual fall concert, this year titled, "Pop Downtown."

It consisted of many talented students who took their time and energy to produce a splendid performance. And as senior, DeAnn Dart, put it, "It was jamming!"

1. The Company warms up with the hit song "Kyrie." 2. Andy Murphy and Stacy Thomas are ready for the "Trickle, Trickle" of rain. 3. Are these really mannequins? 4. Chadnezzar Vickers sings, "Three Times a Lady." 5. Paula Riley wonders about "The Man That Got Away." 6. Jim Fox and Lynn Spier go "On and On." 7. Veronica Campbell and Brian Parks are "On the Sunny Side of the Street." 8. Some hot guys are "Standing on the Corner." 9. Laurie Quinn and Suzanne Chung warm up their vocal chords.

Bands
Wild and Funny

Wilson High is known to have three of the hottest bands in town. Whether it is Jazz, Concert, or Symphonic, you know they are the best. Of course, at times, they are wild and funny, but when it comes to performing, serious is what they are.

Mr. Fraser, their director, has never had any problems with them during their performances; they always end up receiving a standing ovation and great applause. As everyone in the band said, "It is not only doing your best, but you also should enjoy what you do; and while you are at it, have lots of fun!"

Rock out

by Tina Bickel

Wilson's second annual holiday assembly was yet another great example of the spirit and enthusiasm of Wilson's staff and students. The combination of talent from the cheer, music, and dance departments brought to Wilson a holiday show of both spirit and enchantment.

For all who attended the assembly, which occurred during third period on Friday, December 19, they were greeted by appearances from "Santa and his Helpers" and other such characters, which helped to bring about the holiday spirit in all of us.

1. Georgi Levine starting with an exciting story. 2. Attention!

by Jeremy Natter

The Few, the Proud, the NJROTC

Champions! For the last five years the Wilson High School NJROTC has won the All City drill competition. They competed in three categories: flag squads marching, and armed and unarmed marching. In addition to this, they participated in six to [illegible] parades each year, including one sponsored by U.C.L.A. Other events were visits to various military bases and a mini-boot camp which 30 students attended during Spring Break.

Students entered the program for different reasons. Some wanted to go directly into the armed forces after high school. The NJROTC lets them enter at a higher pay level. Some just liked the discipline and the drills. Whatever their reasons, the organization contained a complete cross-section of Wilson students, including Brunettes and football players.

The program is run like a small Navy unit. Hai Tran was the battalion commander with lieutenant commander Bill Dyer and Chief Petty Officer Gary Clark in overall command. This unit had, among other things, an ordinance department, an operations department, platoon commanders, and squad leaders. All of these posts were held by students.

The 1987 Woodrow Wilson Choral program was perhaps one of the best ever seen at the school. Under the excellent direction of Mrs. Carla Strandberg and the vocal talents of such performers as Jim Fox, Cameron Ramirez, Paula Riley, Stacy Thomas, and the rest of the department, their successful year did not really come as a surprise

The department not only had a successful year, but also a very busy one. They performed numerous programs for the school, such as Pop's Concert, the Holiday program, and the Musical Review, and they also participated in many sing outs This year's Choral department was a wonderful combination of talents making for a great year

by Michelle Clark

The Program of Additional Curricular Experiences (PACE) is a fast paced college preparatory program at Poly High School which offers advanced study in many areas of special interest. There are over sixteen advanced placement courses offered within the PACE program.

If the students pass the A.P. tests given in May, they are able to earn college credits towards most major universities. Many PACE graduates have actually been able to enter college as sophomores, having earned enough credits to skip their freshman year.

Wilson students go to PACE for different reasons. Some go because of parental pressures, while others desire an academic challenge. Whatever their reasons, most PACERS (common nickname) agree that they are receiving a great education. Marcia Wicktor expressed the thoughts of many students at PACE when she said, "The teachers at PACE are devoted to the students and really care about their progress in school, and their future."

There is a sense of comraderie among PACE students. When asked why, Hung Ngo said, "The PACE program is very stressful and tends to pull students together, because they're experiencing the same pressures." Anna Cearly states, "It's not the type of work we're doing that's difficult, but the amount of homework that is assigned."

A PACER's day starts early in the morning waiting for the bus which picks them up at Wilson and then takes them to Poly at 7:25. Unlike Wilson students, PACERS only have three classes before lunch. Their first period class is fifty minutes long, while their next two classes are eighty minutes long. The following day the student will have the same first period class but two different eighty minute classes. The PACE student is able to take five classes instead of four. The rotation of these two eighty minute classes called mods, continues throughout the entire year.

After classes end at Poly, it is back to Wilson for part of lunch and sixth and seventh period. At Wilson, PACERS have involved themselves in many activities. Some have involved themselves in Brunettes and J.V. Yell, while others played sports, such as tennis, water polo, track, soccer, and volleyball.

The part-time PACE students were given the choice to stay at Poly full-time, but chose to return to Wilson for the additional experiences offered. The PACERS kept themselves busy this year devoting their time to activities at both schools.

Graphic Arts, a new club on campus this year, was designed to give the students more experience in the areas of graphic arts, which is the industry by which we can communicate with each other visually. The reason for its existence is because many students were interested in the arts, and they wanted to be of service to the school

Their future plans are to produce shirts and pennants for the school, and to work for other clubs. Mr. Randall Bowden, drama teacher/director said, "They did a very good job for the drama department in making T-shirts for the hit play 'Go Ask Alice.'"

"The purpose of the club is to have a good time, "said teacher, Mr Bill Lee

The Bruins' League, a spirit organization, primary goal was to show appreciation for the faculty and staff at Wilson. They also served during Senior Vespers and were in charge of the Sophomore Back-to-School Breakfast. Their basic goal was to help promote good relations between the students and faculty. Bruins' League was an increasingly more popular club with almost ten members in 1986 and now almost eighty members in 1987. Let the tradition carry on for years to come.

What used to be Wilson's Saga Club has now changed its name to GEL. GEL members were mainly interested in strategic and role playing games. A couple of their old time favorites were "Risk" and "Dungeons and Dragons." Members attended meetings to get together and discuss games with people who have similar interests. GEL has almost doubled in number of members since last year.

Clubs Make Homecoming à Hit

by Michelle Clark

Getting involved in school activities is what Wilson's 1986-87 clubs have been all about. Perhaps their most successful endeavor this year was the role they played during Wilson's Homecoming fair. Alpha Chi a newly developed club on campus, sponsored by Mrs. Barbara Stewart, sold McDonald's cheeseburgers along with orange drink. Alpha Chi was developed last year for the purpose of promoting Christian fellowship on campus. The Deca Club sponsored by Mr. Bill Nieland cooked up a storm and sold homemade burgers along with soda. American Literature, also sponsored by Mrs. Stewart, sold assorted bakery goods. Hot dogs were the specialty for the Octagon Club, sponsored by Mr. Joe Henderson.

Political Action

Members of the Political Action Club enjoyed congregating weekly and debating on the current political issues. The members, along with their sponsor, Dr. Cotney, debate such subjects as elections, the death penalty, propositions, and all the current issues.

The members of the Political Action club include the following: Lionel Cattey (sponsor), Chris Banks, Debbie Curley, James Connelly, Lonie Armstrong, Kelly Faase, Joseph Matthews (president), and Elizabeth Vasquez.

Mrs. Marcia Nye is the faculty advisor who sponsors the community and social service club, the Sunshine Society. This meant the students conducted their meetings and discussions with Mrs. Nye also.

The Sunshine Society members are Mrs. Nye, Katie Childs, Juancho Fermin, Johanna James, Christina Jefferson, Jessica Luteman, Dayna Pepoy, and Liz Quintana.

The sunshine society was a useful school and community service club during the year. Their main objective was to reach out and help those in need.

Dance

Clubbing Around

by Joy Megas

Wilson Dance Department has received great recognition in the school support given by the Dance Club. The '86-87 year brought many fund raisers in preparation for the spring show. The club participated in many activities, including Homecoming, selling caramel and cheddar Culpepper's popcorn, stuffed animals, and Dance sweatshirts.

"The purpose of the club is to promote school spirit while promoting the Dance Department," says Treasurer, Ron Cleere.

GMC stands for Girls' Music Club, and this year's GMC girls were the best ever! GMC promotes Wilson's unsung heroes, a.k.a. the boys of Wilson Band. Throughout the year, the girls not only baked goodies for "their boys" every Friday, but also had bagel sales and fund raisers to help support the Music Department.

"The best part," says senior Jojo Nghiem," is that your GMC boy doesn't know who you are!"

Much like the Dance Club, the Choral Club also received recognition of the work done throughout the 86-87 season. The club proved once again the tradition of a fabulous Choral Department. Sponsored by Mrs. Carla Strandberg and lead by Pres. Jim Fox, the Choral Club had many fundraisers and spirit at school events.

Teamwork isn't limited to just athletics; at Wilson this isn't more true. This is best shown by the 1986-87 Math Team. The Math Team won many victories this year, both individual and team. Some problems solved were so mindboggling the teachers were puzzled.

Stage Crew Club

by Robb Duffield

The Stage Crew and club of Wilson runs the behind the scenes of our most prestigious entertainment events and our every day activities. They are the people who are in charge of creating scenes for all Wilson drama events as well as controlling the lighting and sound for the shows . But they are responsible for much more than our drama

They handle the technican needs of our choral shows, orchestral presentations, football games, and Homecoming, as well as, the graduation ceremonies of our seniors. The stage crew heads the annual Campus Kapers talent show in which they have complete control of the entire show This includes the written format, sound, light, and cues for the participants But to their discontent, it has to be approved by student activities

Mr. Kusik is the crew and club supervisor, while Mr Mahan, the stage manager is at the auditorium whenever it is used He instructs the crew as to what scenery is needed and makes cues. A more everyday job for the crew is taking care of the auditorium at our rallies. Setting up and taking down equipment is also a regular job for them whenever a group wishes to use the auditorium Along with daily cleaning and maintenance of the stage The stage club is an extension of the stage crew, who give a dollar a week, enabeling them to have pizza parties and hopefully a trip to Universal Studios

Computer Club

Expanding Horizons

by Robb Duffield

The Wilson Computer Club was formed during the second semester of this year. As a new club its members were very anxious to broaden the knowledge about computers. The Apple Computer Corp. offers software and a basic guideline for the club to follow.

The Computer Club goals are promoting computer literacy, improving educational computing by encouraging the positive use of microcomputer by youth, encouraging the exchange of ideas, information, and knowledge between individuals and other organizations, encouraging an interest in, and the exploration of computers, promoting the use of computers for non-technical activities, bringing together students with dissimilar abilities so they can learn from each other, i.e., regular education and special needs students, using the computer to help others, assisting students in preparing for careers, helping students deal with a society that is increasingly information based, providing an environment that is conductive to exploring the computer's abilities, promoting participation, cooperation, and self motivation in the learning process, developing a network that provides computer-related advice and information.

The club met once a week in the Media Center and was sponsored by Mrs. Gloria Mattson, and the club's co-sponsor was Mr. Bob Coleman.

The president this year was Chespisal Yin. The vice-president was Meilann Chao, and the secretary treasurer was Fang Lee.

ESSENCE was organized at the beginning of the second semester with a membership of ten. Mrs. M[illegible]e Parker is the sponsor.

Essence Club was designed to motivate students to become more involved in school activities and to build self-esteem and pride. The club officers are President, Cheri LeFlore; Vice-President, Veronica Cuyler; Secretary, Deanne Dart; members: Lashaun Childerss, Stephanie Carino, Felisce Williams, Jackie Jones, Bridgett Hayes, Hanh Phan, Iva Jingles, Tasha Croom, Veronda McGrew

Wilson's Rallies Go Ramblin' On

1. The homecoming rally of 1986. The Brunettes were prepared to take their stand in the spotlight on the football field. They waited to initiate their new routines. 2. Mr. Honey and Ms. Slattery were featured in a rally for their superior counseling work here at Wilson High. This process was practiced frequently to honor our faculty.

3. The first rally of the year. Varsity Yell provided us with a chant. 4. "If I were not a Z girl, if I were not a Z, if I were not a Z girl . . ." basketball players Courtney Kirkwood and Sandy Bell be. This was a yearly traditional skit.

5. A typical pose for George Levine, who was our fall rally chairperson. A position that she fulfilled with her hilariously obnoxious mannerisms. She entertained us with her singing and dancing to such songs as Wild Child and Louie Louie.

by Chris Ceci

The traditions of rallies live on at Wilson. All looked forward to this entertainment provided weekly. This included the rockouts by pepsters and yell the Z creep by the Z girls and such entertainment as games and races performed by students and faculty. All this and more concludes that the spirit of Wilson goes ramblin' on.

Symposium Accepts Wild Life

by Chris Ceci

Symposium started in the 50's by an English teacher named Ann-Maria Bucahrd. When she passed on, the club was dormant for several years. In the early 1970's, Mrs. Billie Polkosnik got the club rolling again. Mrs. Polkosnik has now been handling this human relations club for fifteen years. She commented, "Each year has been different, but each has been its own unique thing."

The retreat provides a time to get away from the stress of such things as school, parents, and friends. On these retreats the students talk with one another and learn how to cope with life. The retreats have been proven to be a positive and enriching experience.

Each year a theme is selected by the symposium editorial board. The theme this year was "Ladders of Human Connection." "I am very proud of this year's E-board, for these are the ones who organize the entire retreat." This year's sponsors consisted of Ms. Ann Slattery, Ms. Susie Dewitz, Mrs. Polkosnik, and Mr. Bob Coleman. Ms. Dewitz describes the trip by saying, "I was very touched by the whole thing." Mrs. Polkosnik said in her speech on teen suicide, "You must accept yourself before you accept others."

Other top players were senior Tracy Simpson, senior Raul Garcia and junior Bob Pierce. When asking Coach Taylor who the top player was, he didn't hesitate to name Brett Barnes. He rushed 202 yards, intercepted fo[illegible] touchdown and passed for another.

The second top player, Tracey Simpson, earned 190 yards and scored [illegible] touchdowns. Third top player Raul Garcia was injured, yet came back to play offensive and defensive positions. Ward's Wild World of Wilson Wrestling

by Kami Briet

Pre-season matches and tournaments began wildly in November for Wilson wrestling. Under coach Scott Ward's diligent direction, Wilson's wrestling was led to many victories.

In this sport, wrestlers compete in different weight categories, often being required to lose or gain weight to wrestle in an event. The weights required to wrestle are as follows: 98 lbs., 105 lbs., 112 lbs., 119 lbs., 126 lbs., 132 lbs., 138 lbs., 145 lbs., 155 lbs., 167 lbs., 185 lbs., and 200 lbs. These categories guarantee equality among opponents and an exciting match.

Jeremy Naftel said, "It's a great sport, but the most tiring on campus." Moore League champs this year included Bob Pierce, Heavyweight, a junior on the Varsity team. The coaching of Scott Ward also sent the Bruins to CIF, where they held their own.

"We did what we wanted, and we came out winners. It was neat to have three of our players considered for All-CIF."

by George Verbryck

The Junior Varsity and Varsity teams had a disappointing season with a 12-16 record. The team placed second in the Mikan Tournament, 4th in the South Coast Tournament and 12th in the Western California Tournament. Wilson was eliminated in the first round of the CIF.

Eric Berg and Kerry Disco shared most valuable player honors for scoring the most goals and making the most assists, respectively. Brad Hooper was an outstanding goalie as well as the most improved.

The Sophomore team had a great season, improving tremendously toward the end. The best game was also the last, a 6-5 win over Sunny Hills to which they had lost earlier in the season 2-9. The Moore League Championship was captured by Wilson as was the consolation title in the South Coast Tournament.

Both Chi Kreddell and Grant Bisby are possible starters on the Varsity team next year. The goalies kept the team in the several times when defense broke down. Chi Kreddel was the most valuable player, Grant Bisby had the most assists, while Joe Bailey scored the most goals — 44. The most improved player was Jody Howard, and the most inspirational players were Amy Garland and Jason Dutaut who helped lead the team to a victorious season.

Cross-Country Into the Wildlife

by Mike Dark

Could this be the best Cross-Country team? Well, Coach Arquilla thinks so In fact, he feels that "this is the best team ever." With both JV and Varsity all but destroying the opposing teams, the Bruins ran away with Moore League. The closest competition came on October 23, when Wilson raced the long-standing rivals, Lakewood Lakewood had won four years straight until they met this year's team. Wilson trounced Lakewood 18 to 45, (the lowest score wins). You get points for the places the runners finish in (15 is a shut-out).

Five runners made all Moore League: Jeff Hicks, Jeff Eldridge, Mai Cuong, Ray McConnachie, and Robel Afewerki. These five runners also helped get the Bruins to tenth place in CIF. With three varsity runners coming back next year, Coach Arquilla says, "We will do very well next year with the people moving up from JV."

Hoopsters Hit Second in Moore League

by Marcia Dedeaux

The '86-87 Bruin team had an outstanding year. The team was led this year by starters: Don Brotz, Randy West, Sonny Reynolds, Carlos Mendez, Jodi Pruitt, and Lantz Simpson. Others: Leon Young, Greg Meyers, Chris Bahner, Tim Smith, and Sam Casazza.

Wilson had a win of 18 and a loss of 8. We made it up to C.I.F., but unfortunately, were not able to make it to the second round, which placed us second in the Moore League. But we accomplished a personal goal, a two win victory, with our number one competitor Poly. We have not beaten Poly since 1983, and Poly has not been beaten twice by any school in one season in over 15 years. "Go Bruins."

We are proud of our third year starter, Don Brotz, who has accepted a scholarship to North Western University and will play for the Wildcats. The Wilson Bruins once again have carried on our pride. What a year!

Teams Learn Fundamentals

by Ellen Thometz

Although these teams follow behind the limelight of the Varsity teams, the Wilson JV and Sophomore Basketball teams played an important part in the season.

"The JV and Sophomore teams work on the fundamentals. It is a building block for Varsity," said JV Coach Gard.

The JV and Sophomore teams' season weren't as successful as they had hoped, but the JV team was only blown out once in the season.

The JV team's most exciting game was against the Lakewood Lancers. The Bruins won the game on a last second shot.

The strong point of the JV team was their aggression.

"They are a gutsy little team. They are the type of team that never quits," said Coach Gard.

The Sophomore team started off slow, but they kept getting better according to their coach, Steve Hunt.

Some of the key players of the year were Chris Bates, Brian Dobbins and Jim Senske. The only sophomore on the JV team was Darrell McGowan. The JV and Sophomore teams are a preparation for varsity. As soccer coach Klaus Barth put it, "They learn how to kick ass."

Boys' Swim Wild?

The Wilson Boys' Swimming team had a tournament filled year. This year's team required total dedication from each member under the guidance of Coach Klaus Barth. There were two workouts each day, the first an hour at 6:00 in the morning, and the second for two hours after school. Combined, the two workouts came to an average of 2,500 yards per hour which is equivalent to 150 laps in an average home sized pool. It certainly isn't your casual dip in the pool, these guys were animals!

Of course the season could not go on without some outstanding athletes in the spotlight. High performing swimmers this year on the Varsity squad included All-CIF star — Eric Berg and Kerry Driscoll. On the Junior Varsity squad: Scott Darling and Chris Thue.

The 1986-1987 Swim teams were an asset to upholding the high ideals and dedication of Wilson High, as they strived to do their best to win another Moore League Championship!

Wilson Boys Love Tennis

by Sharon Suekt

Fierce forehands, bold backhands, sensational serves, vicious volleys, and overwhelming overheads awaited each member of the 1987 Wilson Boys' Tennis team during seventh period and after school each Spring semester school day. These netmen endured rigorous workouts, such as laps around the track, all designed to increase endurance and stamina on the courts.

Anxiously they worked out to prepare themselves for the upcoming challenges, wins, and defeats. Their talents were spread around at three court sites: Tenth Street courts, Park Avenue courts and Billy Jean King.

Coach Jon Meyer not only had to coach, but had to tame his wild racketeers. His team had depth with the strength of several returning players from last year's squad.

Our Varsity team featured an outstanding sophomore Willy Quest. As Coach Meyer stated, "It would be unexcuseable not to mention him." Willy is a nationally ranked tennis player and has much more potential for his future.

It was a bearly good Bruin season!

The Boys Tear Up the Track

by Mike Dark

Almost everyday someone says, "We have to run how far?" The reply that Coach Arquilla gives is, "Hey, you don't have to, but when that sophomore runs by you, don't cry to me."

Coach Arquilla is always pushing the runners to the edge of their ability. With runners, sprinters, throwers, and jumpers in top physical shape, Wilson did very well.

Wilson's team is headed by Jeff Hicks, Sonny Reynodls, Tracy Simpson, and Jeff Eldred. They are the tops in their events. They all agree that Wilson's athletes are in their prime condition and did very well this season.

With Coach Lynn at the long jump, Coach Riddick in the pole vault, and head Coach Arquilla rounding everything off, Wilson couldn't go wrong.

Soccer Scores Big

by Jeremy Naftel

Winning was the theme for this year's Varsity and Junior Varsity Soccer teams. The Varsity team, under the coaching of Coach Klaus Barth and the incred ble of fense efforts of Jesus Martinez and Vu Tran, succeeded in stomp.ng out all the competi tion in the Moore League

"Our great strength is our bench," says Coach Barth Taking a person out of the game doesn't hurt the team because there are so many talented substitutes waiting to go into the game. The Varsity team had an almost perfect record until they lost in the CIF quarter-finals.

The JV and Sophomore teams also did well The JV took first place in Moore League. The Sophomore team had to play teams from outside the League because no other League team had a Sophomore team. Soccer is very popular at Wilson. There is no need for Coach Barth to do any recruiting because so many people want to play Well over 100 people tried out, but fewer than 70 made the team

The outstand ng success of these teams can be seen and understood when one looks at their teamwok and passing, and their support for each other As Coach Barth says of the Varsity team, "This is the best team I have ever coached."

Wild Baseball Hits Moore League

by Fabian Bartolin

Sliding in with victory is what Varsity Baseball loves most! and that is what they planned on doing in the spring season

Baseball's first game was held March 7 against Culverton High with Wilson winning the outcome Coach Pete Tereschuk commented that he thought they would finish first in the Moore League with a strong outfield backing them up, and young players on the infield

The Varsity senior and junior players were very hopeful during the season because of their past record of winning titles as sophomores

Coach Tereschuk said that with younger pitchers they will mature in time and perform even better

JV Showed Wild Potential

by Fabian Bartolini

Batting their way into a top slot in Moore League, JV Baseball placed third in 1984, first in 1985, and second in 1986, and had another great placing in the 1987 school year.

Rick Evans, who has been coaching Junior Varsity Baseball for some years, said "My team had very good potential for the spring of 1987. With many sophomore players, JV Baseball has grown into a strong and determined team. Exceptional pitching by Bobby Johnson and Steve Nobel demonstrated the style and quality of Wilson's team.

Boys' Golf Swings

by Tasha Ruvalcaba

The 1987 Woodrow Wilson Golf team, under the superb coaching of Gene Rowland, had a very successful season this year. As was expected by Coach Rowland, who stated even before the season began, "The team this year will have an excellent season; we will go to CIF." They were rated fourth in the state CIF-SCGA Tournament with hopes of improving their rank.

With the returning Varsity players Jay Skenderian, David Fisher, and Norm Ehren, the Varsity team made this season hard for their competitors. JV made great impressions this season, and it was obvious they had every intention of winning the championship.

The team started practicing in February, but most of them practiced during the summer on their own time. Even though these inspiring, talented players were under pressure, they all did well and made this season memorable.

Champions from start to finish, Wilson's 1986 JV Volleyball team won the Moore League title with a 9-1 record. Throughout the season the team dominated the league by being what Coach Jeff Watten called, "The best attacking and serving team I've ever had." The team was led by juniors Mary Kullenberg and Stephanie Chislock, two year starters for the Bruins. Sophomores Tara Reynolds and Caron Pardee also led the team with superb offensive attacking.

The Lady Bruins put in an excellent showing at the Gahr tournament, placing fifth, and the Huntington Beach tournament at which they placed third. Stephanie Chislock led the Bruins during the Huntington Beach tournament, being selected to the all-tournament team. Coach Watten said it was, "The best we played the whole season."

Working hard throughout their season, the team "improved exponentially," according to Coach Watten.

Aqua Life

by Tasha Ruvalcaba

The 1987 Woodrow Wilson Girls' Swim team had outstanding and dedicated swimmers. Head Coach Carol Lind and Assistant Coach Susie Swatek pulled together to motivate team members to do their very best. In result, the girls won many titles and most important, Moore League.

The girls rose early in the mornings to swim one hour before school, and then again two hours after school. The swimming experience was often exhausting to the girls as well as exciting and rewarding.

Excellent times were accomplished by Varsity players Katie Rowe, Denice Steichen, Courtney Kirkwood, and Annie Sjoberg. The girls worked very hard to be as powerful and outstanding as they are, and with their slogan, "No Pain — No Gain," no other school will get in their way to win the Moore League Title again in the years to come.

Bruins Run Past Competition

by Tom Wells

Once again, the Girls' Cross-Country team was successful in continuing its dominance by capturing its fourth Moore League championship in as many years. Before the season even began, the lady Bruins showed promises of success by their outstanding performances in various pre-season invitationals. The Wilson squad continued to run this well during the season and finished undefeated in dual meets. Their season came to a climax when the Bruins faced and defeated the previously unbeaten Lakewood team. This victory insured them of their fourth straight Moore League title

The lady Bruins were led by juniors Martina Lauchengco, Susan Purucker, Chrissy Asher Rissa Mattingly, and sophomores Danielle Anderson, Tasha Tweedell, and Darcie Whelan. But their success as a team can be attributed to their support for one another as well as their excellent individual performances. The person responsible for guiding the team, Coach Therese Jordan, states, "This year's team is the strongest team I've ever coached." And with the return of their outstanding junior and sophomore runners, one can only imagine how awesome next year's team will be

by Chris Ceci

The 1986-87 Lady Bruin Basketball program yielded a season of team building and growth

The program was made up of 90 percent sophomores and juniors, thus resulting in more than half returning next year. The team spent their pre-season time well, polishing their fundamental skills. They ranked 6-8

The Varsity team was lead by two juniors, Yonay Hatch and Tara Foster. Yonay and Tara were an instrumental part of the Lady Bruins that made the scores and generally had great ball control

An important league game for these Lady Bruins was against Jordan Wilson took a win by 20 points Coach Debbie Broadway conveys that for the first time in several years, Wilson went to the consolation in South Torrance They worked hard, played smart ball, and brought home the victory The Bruins ended the league 5-6

The JV team was led by Joyce Wells and Erika Diaz, both sophomores.

The Badminton team had many returning players this year which included Insook Kim, Kim Teas, Raina Chea, Siv-Hong Vong, and Khiem Kha. With so many returning players, they were likely to have a good season.

They had a lot of experience, and they practiced hard. With these qualities behind them, it paid off in the Moore League. Last year's record of 8-2 was hard to beat, but the team knew they were capable.

Insook Kim and Khiem Kha were the star players this season. They hoped to reach Tracey McBride's winning record from last year.

Mrs. O'Toole Mendoza exclaimed, "The team looked great, and that was exciting to me as a first year coach." As the team progressed, they were assured of a winning season.

"Last year Tracey McBride led the team to victory. This year we hoped for some more victorious players," said Val Hoffman.

Moore League Champs

Girls' Soccer Wields a Wild Wilson Win

by Kami Brief

Girls' Soccer came out kicking this year, achieving the Moore League title, thanks to the wielding, wild feet of Varsity players Lisa Almquist, Alecia Beebe, and Angela Lightfoot. "It was really all a team effort," stated Lisa Almquist, one of the Lady Bruins' forwards.

In the League opener against Millikan, the Lady Bruins proved "Millican't." The score was 2-1, thanks to Lisa Almquist and Angela Lightfoot. "We couldn't have done it without our coach Mr. Jeff Watten," stated Maggie Swartz. Another forward, Alecia Beebe, said, "This year is one that we'll always remember."

Junior Varsity Soccer also had a victorious year. In their opening game against Millikan, they came out on top leaving the Rams in the dust 5-1. For the first time ever, JV was undefeated and won the League title; they beat Millikan and Lakewood twice.

Outstanding players included Tami McClennan, Danielle Anderson, and Toni Ithurralde. "Not only do we work hard, but we have fun," stated Toni Ithurralde. Jennifer Prager, JV's aggressive goalie, stated, "Our team has a great attitude and enjoys the feeling of victory." Way to go, Lady Bruins!

Bruin Softball Strikes Again

by Melissa Aldrich

Fourteen wild women made up the 1987 Bruin Varsity Softball Team. Once again the team was a top contender in Moore League. With strong pitching from Karen Clay and Shelly Fink, the girls had a strong foundation on which to build

The hitting of Darlene Esser and Shannon McCabe gave the team the opportunity to score, while the base running of Chloe Taylor and Angela Lightfoot brought in the runs.

Junior Kim Duhem brought experience to first base while senior Stacy Lee continued her dominance behind the plate. Newcomers Vanessa Dody and Juliana Gaulden were great additions in the field and at the plate

JV Softball was led by the pitching of Sarah Williams and the catching of Renee Croft. Returning players Suzanne Wells, Veronica Campbell, Sherry Dorris, Lizzy Stuhlstatz and Tasha Robinson gave the team the leadership it needed to win. Coached by Scott Ward, JV had a successful and wild season

Lady Bruins Strut

With Style

by Matthew Murphy

This year's "Lady Bruins" are too hot to handle. Their teamwork and sportsmanship is the force behind their championship team. From an observer's point of view, one can tell that the Girls' Track team is an exceptional asset to Wilson High.

The strength these girls portray is unbeatable. They have top runners in sprints, hurdlers, and relays. This year's team is filled with potential for record-breaking athletes all around. Coach Jordan, Coach Woods, and Coach Redlin are striving to make this season the best ever!

but is could not be done without those

Wilson Dance

It Sizzles

by Joy Megas

Wilson Dance, once again, dazzled audiences during the 1986-87 season. Under the direction of Alumnus dancer, Joyce Van Zant, the advanced class, over 100 intermediate and beginning dancers, performed to a sold-out show in March. A variety of dance styles captivated the crowd, ranging from classical ballet to modern jazz. Featured performers included soloists Heather Mills and Jenny Inge and a duet by Ted Hisquierо and Joy Megas. 1987 Student Directors were Heather Mills and Stephanie Nelson. Other top dancers included Seniors Shannon Lynn and Nicole Sumi, and Juniors Michelle Matt and Kelly Little.

After many hours of practice, before and after school, the dancers used the limited facilities offered to uphold the tradition and recognized fact that district wide Wilson Dance — The Best In The West!

by Lara Turnbul

The 1987 Woodrow Wilson Gymnastics team had a very good year. With the help of Coach Bob Piercy and Debbie Campanile, who volunteered her time to help coach and choreograph routines, the team was bound for success

With top returning gymnasts, Tammy Asaki, Susan Knoff, Christine Mays, and Grace Tan, the team began their season with both confidence and excitement

The girls began their season on March 10 with a meet against Marlborough and competed in anywhere from one to three meets per week, taking them all the way to the Moore League finals in May

With a lot of sweat and hard work, the 1987 Gymnastics team was determined to finish high in the Moore League with hopes for a shot in CIF. The team schedule was as follows: 3-10 vs Marlborough, 3-13 vs. Savanna, 3 17 vs. Cypress, 3-27, 3-27 vs. Lakewood, 3-28 Cypress Invitational, 4-3 vs. Crescenta Valley, 4-10 vs. Millikan 4-24 vs. Poly, 4-25 Marlborough Invitational, 5-1 vs. Jordan 5-8 Moore League finals.

Administration:

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE
by Jack DuBois

On the steps of the main entrance to Wilson High School is a bronze plate which was installed January 28, 1927, by the Native Sons of the Golden West. It reads "This building is dedicated to Truth, Liberty and Tolerance."

This plaque, now more than sixty years old, has been seen by thousands of Wilson students. These principles of Truth, Liberty and Tolerance have always been held high as key tenants of the school's program and have provided the foundation for our tradition of Academic Excellence and Achievement.

The class of 1987 has again continued this tradition. We congratulate them as they join thousands of graduates who have received the basis for their futures in this great institution. On Mighty Bruins in Truth, Liberty and Toleration

A Beginning to an End . .

by Matthew Murphy

We're losing two valued and respected teachers this year at Wilson. Yes, Mr. Laurence Hill and Mr. Frank Johnston are retiring. Retiring, just what does that mean?

For Mr. Hill, it means time in the Orient, Japan, and Brazil. Mr. Hill is also going to devote more time to his Japanese restaurant and deal in Japanese antiques. Not to mention, he would like to do some boating and sailing in his spare time. Asking Mr. Hill if he had any regrets about leaving, he replied, "I'm really going to miss the students, they are a lot of fun."

Retirement for Mr. Johnston means getting back to his first love for work, woodshop. He, too, is going to travel, except he is going to stay a little more locally, like his cabin in Tahoe, and he is going to tour the U.S. at his leisure.

Mr. Johnston has taught at Wilson for 27 dedicated years, 20 of which were spent as a Driver's Training teacher. He remarked that a lot of the student body for those twenty years have passed through his classroom. Mr. Johnston's regrets about leaving were, "I love working with students, and I'll really miss them."

Combined, Mr. Hill and Mr. Johnston have devoted 40 years of their lives to Wilson High. To them, we must say "Good Luck; we love you, and we'll miss you." A beginning to an end . . .

I'm not retiring, I'm just beginning!

3

Now, calm down, this is my last semester too!

4

Quiet! I want to finish telling you how much I'll miss you

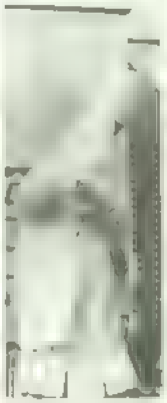
Robb, "It's all There in Front of You."

Friends Forever; Partying for Eternity



Party Animals Persist

To the FANTASTIC staff of the 1987 CAMPANILE:

Thanks for the memories, guys! What a year . . . Todd Thomas was named student of the month. Tina Bickel broke her collarbone. Don Ridley returned to our loving class. Hung Ngo decided to dress normally. Lara Turnbull, the gymnast, permanently damaged her foot. Chem Duffield actually finished his club page, the Connect Four game died. John Hughes actually put on shoes, we met our deadlines, and Taylor chose the Campanile to represent its company in a nationwide campaign for sales.

We surpassed last year's ad sales, and we added both color and black and white pages to the book. We had an outstanding rep in Steve Eddy, and the success we achieved this year proves that.

The hard work and weekly stress sessions have paid off. Your book is excellent, and I'm proud of each and every member of the 1987 Campanile staff: Todd Thomas, Editor; John Hughes, Managing Editor; Robyn Woronow, Business Manager; Todd Gardner, Photo Editor; and staffers Melissa Aldrich, Chris Banks, Fabian Bartolini, Tina Bickel, Kami Briet, Chris Ceci, Raina Chea, Michelle Clark, Mike Dark, Marcia Dedeaux, Chem Duffield, Kerri Finch, Desiree Knisley, Amy Medak, Joy Megas, Matt Murphy, Jeremy Nattel, Hung Ngo, Jenny Richter, Don Ridley, Tasha Ruvalcaba, Sharon Sueki, Ellen Thometz, Lara Turnbull, Mirna Vazquez, George Verbryck, Tom Wells, Katrina White, Chris Wilson, and Georgia Zorbas.

Good Luck, and may you each find peace, love, and light in your life.

Love,
Ms. D. Advisor

Our Best Moves On

As our year comes to an end, we look back on the perfectly named Wilson Wildlife Campanile. Many long hours of work and dedication went into this book. Wilson Wildlife is a salute to the students, the students that are wild, but always serious enough to get things done and done right. As we move on to college, work, or another year at Wilson, I hope when you look back you will recall all the wild time from the first day to the last.

I would like to thank Ms. Dewitz for all her help; without her there is no way we could get this book to you. (We love ya, Susie!) Thanks to John Hans Hughes for his work as Managing Editor this year and for helping me cope with all the stress this year has had, but at the same time keeping a wild atmosphere going.

As we move on our separate beats, Wilson Wildlife will always move with us.

Todd Thomas
Editor

The beat of our special Wilson spirit runs year after year. The experiences of that special feeling have an everlasting effect upon one's memory. From the time you enter as a sophomore, you hope that feeling will last forever; but as with all things, it must come to an end as well as start a new beginning.

As for this year's class of '87, this year has come to an end, but it is time to start a new beginning. To reach out to new goals and ideas. To start one's life at the beginnning again. The memories of these past years shall continue to beat on throughout minds.

As Managing Editor of this year's special Campanile class, I wish to thank our advisor Susan DeWitz for the time and patience and friendship that was needed to pull this whole scheme off. I would also like to thank my fellow editor, Todd Thomas, for without his real humor and true friendship, I would have never made it through this incredible year.

For this year's sophomore and junior classes, the beat of that special Wilson spirit will continue to flow, but as for this year's graduating class of '87, the beat moves on.

John Hughes
Managing Editor
